

THE EDUCATION LAW ASSOCIATION &
LOYOLA MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY
INVITE LEGAL PROFESSIONALS &
PUBLIC AND PRIVATE K-20 EDUCATORS TO ATTEND:

Girl holding an iPhone. Retrieved from Encyclopedia Britannica
Image Quest. http://quest.eb.com/images/132_1227923 on December 25, 2013.

BEYOND DIGITAL
CITIZENSHIP:
CYBERBULLYING, EDUCATION, & THE LAW

LOYOLA MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY
VON DER AHE SUITE IN THE HANNON LIBRARY
FRIDAY FEBRUARY 21, 2014 1:00PM-4:30PM

This afternoon seminar will address legal, professional, and pedagogical issues associated with social media in K-12 and higher education. Specific topics will include:

- 🍏 The Law Governing Cyberbullying & Other Social Media Concerns
- 🍏 Issues of Privacy, Cyberbaiting, & Professional Conduct Online
- 🍏 Teaching Digital Citizenship in Alignment with K-12 Common Core Standards

Featuring: Lori Getz, M.Ed — Instructional Technologist & Internet Safety Specialist
Martha McCarthy, Ph.D — Presidential Professor, Loyola Marymount University
Kerry Brian Melear, Ph.D — Professor, University of Mississippi
Casey Sarantos, M.Ed — Educator & Adolescent Wellness Specialist

Please register as soon as possible, as space for this event is limited.
Register through the Education Law Association bookstore by visiting
<https://educationlaw.org/webinars-bookstore>

★ Continuing legal education credits are available.

Registration fee for this event is $50 per attendee or $100 for three members of your organization.